DEDICATION

Try to find out what's going on, where to find someone or something, or what to do about a problem, and the answer is likely to be, "Ask Toney!" For many years, Mrs. Toney Pearce has been a member of the office staff at U-High. She has helped make the school a more pleasant place for students, faculty, and co-workers. Always good-natured and helpful, she has proven herself to be indispensable in so many ways that it would be impossible to name them all. With grateful acknowledgement of how much we are indebted to her, the Tower proudly dedicates this yearbook to Mrs. Pearce.

"Botched another test today ..."

"One for the money ..."

The Class of '68 has the honor of being the last class to graduate from U-High. After working hard toward this moment for four years, these students are at last ready to move into another, more challenging world. The knowledge and experience they have gained at U-High should help them to better face this world, and they only regret that the school can no longer offer its facilities to students in the future.

"Are you a summer blonde, too?"

JUNIOR CLASS

"I really did have a dentist appointment today, sir."

"Don't peek."

"What do you mean it will explode?"

CLASS OFFICERS: Lee Kaplan, Vice-Pres.; John Samford, Pres.; Missing: Charles Casey, Sec. - Treas.

The Tower proudly presents a small group of students known as the Junior Class. These students, having finished their freshman and sophomore years, suddenly discovered that U-High was not going to be around much longer. With this fact in mind, they set their minds to the task of either making good grades or having fun. Whichever they succeed in, they will never forget that they had the best times of their lives at U-High.

NATIONAL MERIT SCHOLARS

The National Merit Scholarship Program is conducted by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, an independent, nonprofit organization. The Program conducts a nationwide search for talented students who plan to attend college and then helps them with financial assistance.

On the basis of their scores on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, students are awarded Letters of Commendation or are named Semi-Finalists. This year we are proud to announce that four students from University High School received Letters of Commendation.

The 1968 yearbook is an attempt by the yearbook staff to embody not only the highlights of this year but also to express the uniqueness of the final year of U-High's existence. The 1968 Tower was produced in hopes that it will stand as U-High's final memoir. The staff wishes to express its appreciation to Dr. Seiferth, who helped us even though she was no longer teaching at U. School.

THE OBSERVER

Charles Casey, Beth Magnus, Wendy Davis, Phyllis Hough, John Samford and Monte Bedford.

The Observer was a spontaneous publication unique in its concern with moral issues. The paper has carried such controversial items as a first person expose concerning local use of drugs. Mrs. Kajeckas sponsored the paper, and Student Body President Jerry Magnus was the editor.

DISC

Bi-monthly, Disc met with the purpose of discussing current events and social problems in hopes of gaining a more mature and understanding viewpoint of the world. Topics included alienation of youth, urban problems, Viet Nam, and the educational system. The members of Disc wish to express their gratitude to their sponsor, Dr. Benson.

SPEECH

Off to Normal!

The speech club attended several invitational tournaments before it was disbanded due to a ruling by the Illinois High School Association. It then turned its endeavors towards the theatrical field. The members wish to express their appreciation to Mrs. Kajeckas, the sponsor.

"No, she isn't."

Who has smelly feet?

"Man, am I weak!"

Screw it!

It looks like WHAT?

She does look better from here!

That was fun!

Take a what?

"Do you really want coeducational showers?"

"Just take a little off in the back, please."

"It won't fit in."

"It broke."

"Cool it, Kupcek."

Catch!

"Quick, before he catches us holding hands!"

What split?

Isn't swimming fun?

"Who's got creative juice?"

A gift to the poor.

Crowded quarters.

Shave him now.

Buddha who?

"They said I had bad breath."

"Quick, stuff it in your purse."

A swan song.

Everybody take three laps.

Let's go!

"What's that I smell?"

Don't look, boys.

Hello, Mom?

Don't stand up, Barry.

Who's got big ears?

Relaxing at the end of the day.

EDITOR'S NOTE

The 1968 Tower is a book which I hope will make up in quality what it lacks in quantity. The staff and I hope that we have captured something of the spirit of this unique and most memorable "last year" of University School.

Special thanks is due to Dr. Seiferth, our sponsor; the Taylor Publishing Company and their representative, Mr. Charles Sisk; Neunist Studio, who took the class pictures; the Carbondale businesses who supported us through advertising; and the office staff, who have been very understanding.
